

April 2023 - For Immediate Release – Elliot Bishop appointed as Director.

Bargate Murray, the multi-award winning Luxury Asset Law Firm is delighted to announce the appointment of Elliot Bishop (pictured left) to Director with effect from 25th April 2023.

Elliot is well known in the marine sector and has acted in multi-jurisdictional litigation on behalf of major banks and insurers in respect of policy coverage issues and international enforcement of loan security against pleasure boats and superyachts. In addition, he has considerable experience of charter disputes and dealing with disputed commission payments arising out of the sale and purchase of vessels.

Quentin Bargate, Founder and CEO, comments:

“Elliot is a highly regarded senior lawyer who will fit in perfectly with our existing team. Elliot shares our ambition to grow the practice, and we are all excited at the prospect of working with him to make this happen.”

Elliot Bishop, Director, comments:

“Bargate Murray is an established and well respected boutique firm specialising in marine and aviation and a natural home to continue the growth trajectory commenced some years ago. Led by the eminent Quentin and Dom, I am wholly confident my valued Clients will continue to receive the first class service to which they have become accustomed, with the added benefit of a thriving transactional practice too, all from the heart of Mayfair.”
